

Canoe Races Slated For Kam Day

The Outrigger Canoe Club will celebrate Kamehameha Day Friday with Canoe races, a ho-o-puku, and pageant at the beach at Waikiki.

The ho-o-puku and pageant will start at 1 o'clock and the canoe races will get under way at 1:30. A dinner-dance will follow in the evening.

Seven six-paddle events are listed for the canoe regatta. They are the junior six, boys 14 and under, girls six, freshmen six, boys 16 and under, and men over 40.

Races will be held at 15 minute intervals.

All the crews were reported to be in fine condition. They trained hard the past week and are raring to go.
