

OCC Stages Canoe Paddle Races Today

Joining in the community's Kamehameha Day celebration, the Outrigger Canoe Club is sponsoring its annual canoe races off Waikiki beach in front of the club house this afternoon.

Seven races are on the program. All races are six paddle events, with the first event getting under way at 1:30 p. m.

The events follow:

1. Junior six; 2. Boys 14 and under; 3. Girls six; 4. Freshman six; 5. Seniors; 6. Boys 16 and under; 7. Men over 40.

The courses will parallel the beach front.

Prior to the first race there will be a Hawaiian Ho'-o-puku and pageant at 1 p. m. After each race the winning crew will receive awards from the chiefs ruling over the contests.

Harold (Dope) Yap is chairman of the canoe committee.
