

Surfing Events Slated Tonight by Waikiki Club

As an added attraction of Aloha Week, the Waikiki Surf club has announced a program of outrigger canoe riding, surfing and other special events will be staged tonight at 8.

The army has volunteered to mount a battery of searchlights on the beach in front of the club to completely light the water for this surprise program, it was announced by John M. Lind, president of the Waikiki Surf club and Capt. Ainsley Mahikoa, director of Kamehameha school ROTC, co-chairmen of the event.
