

Uluniu Swimming Club To Observe Anniversary

In any community institutions originated to fill a need, like plants indigenous to a soil, develop a character and adaptation to environment peculiarly their own.

Soon after the founding of the Outrigger Canoe Club by Alexander Hume Ford, need for club facilities for women also became

Mrs. Ralph Booth Recent Hostess

Mrs. Ralph Booth was luncheon hostess at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, Monday in honor of Senator Thelma Akana and Baroness Helen Isenberg Zur Helle, Friday night at the hotel, Mrs. Booth entertained at a dinner party.

Jane C. Humphry, David Young Wed

At St. Augustine's-by-the-Sea in a setting of white island flowers, Miss Jane C. Humphry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baxter Humphry of Burlingame, Calif., became the bride of David Roosevelt Young, son of the apparent. Consequently, on March 11, 1899, Mrs. Francis Mills Swanzy called together a small group of Honolulu women for the purpose of organizing a Women's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe club. At the organizational meeting there were present: Mrs. Francis M. Swanzy, Mrs. Allan White, Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Mrs. George R. Carter, Mrs. Joseph Gilman, Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes Jr., Mrs. J. H. Soper, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Mrs. Eben Low, Miss Charlotte Hall, Mrs. George Straub, Mrs. E. I. Spalding, Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder. These women elected the first officers, directors and trustees. They also began to consider a proposed constitution.

Original officers were: presi-

(Continued on Page 6)