

NEWS OF THE WATERFRONT

Honolulu Propeller club preparations are in full swing for an extensive Maritime Day celebration May 21.

Arrangements are being crystalized for open house to be held aboard the Matson liner Lurline, according to Craig Galt, chairman of the open house committee.

#

Subject for the current essay contest will be "The Importance of the American Merchant Marine to the Territory of Hawaii." Seventh, eighth and ninth grade intermediate school students are eligible to participate.

The contest will run until April 30. Prizes will be $75 for first place, $50 second place, $25 third place, $15 fourth place and $10 fifth place.

#

Tentative arrangements have been made for a radio broadcast over station KHON. The theme will be "Ship Your Cargo in American Vessels."

#

Suggestions for a marine pageant include a parade of ships through Honolulu harbor and off Waikiki.

MANY CRAFT ENTERED

Participating in the parade will be 12 canoes of the Outrigger Canoe club, four from the Waikiki Surf club, the coast guard cutter Iroquois; three navy vessels, including a fireboat; 10 power yachts; any army vessels which will be available that day and possibly some tuna fishing boats.

Window displays will be set up in Honolulu and on Maui and Kauai.