

* * *

NEXT HIGHLIGHT on the social calendar at the Outrigger Canoe Club is the Kamehameha day celebration June 11. The festivities will include a hookupu which will begin at 1 p.m. with canoes representing each of the Islands, bearing gifts to the King for the day, Samuel M. Fuller.

At 1:30 p.m. canoe races will be held, with the winners awarded the prizes of pigs, pineapples and coconuts which were presented in the hookupu. Master of ceremonies and script writer will be Carlos Rivas. Harold Yap is chairman of the canoe committee. Bob Fisher is coordinator of athletic activities.

A dinner dance will begin at 6:30 p.m. with members wearing holokus, muumuus and aloha shorts. Reservations for the event should be made early.