

OCC Crew Set For Canoe Races Monday

With the annual Walter Macfarlane memorial outrigger canoe races only four days away, keen interest is being shown in the senior men's race. The Fourth of July regatta will be held at 10 a. m.

Army Sports ROUNDUP

Rocha's First Trip

FT. SHAFTER, June 30—Sergeant First Class Loui Rocha, well known island distance runner and one of the army's all-round athletes, will be making his first trip to the mainland next month.

off the Outrigger Canoe club.

The OCC crews have won the senior open consistently for the past six years.

* * *

Three other clubs, however, are expected to give the Outrigger crew keen competition this year. They are Waikiki Surf club, Hui Nalu and the Outrigger Beach Services.

* * *

The program of events: kids' race, one turn around the inside flag; the junior girls' race, one turn around the inside flag; the junior men's race, one turn around the inside flag; the junior men's four-crew race, one turn around the outside flag.

* * *

Also the senior men's race, three times around the outside flag; the freshman race, one turn around the outside flag; and the senior four-crew race, one turn around the outside flag.