

HUI NALU WINS SENIOR RACE

By RICHARD GIMA.

John D. Kaupiko Sr. is one of the happiest men in the islands today. And no wonder for his Hui Nalu crew won the blue ribbon six man senior open race for the Walter J. Macfarlane perpetual trophy off the Outrigger Canoe club at Waikiki beach.

Witnessed by a motley group of 3,000 holiday bathers and outrigger paddling enthusiasts, the year's outstanding beach extravaganza, a six hour affair, was staged Monday in a thrill-packed program of nine events.

Results of events No. 1 and 2 were protested by Waikiki Surf club, the officials maintaining that OCC entry No. 2 had taken the right of way from WSC at the buoys in the first event.

No official time was listed for this event because the OCC entry was disqualified after finishing first in 7 minutes 40.2 seconds.

Following the close of the meet, Mrs. Kamokila Campbell, mother of the late "Walter Mac" Macfarlane, presented the memorial trophy to the Hui Nalu club. Harold (Dope) Yap, canoe committee chairman, presented the other trophies and prizes.
