

SIR FRANK BEAUREPAIRE, second from right, leading Australian industrialist and sportsman, was honored last night at a dinner given by the Outrigger Canoe club. A former lord mayor of Melbourne, Beaurepaire leaves for home Monday night. He has been one of the leaders in the movement to get the Olympic Games to Melbourne in 1956. In the photo, left to right: Wilford D. Godbold, president of the Outrigger club; George D. (Dad) Center, at whose home Sir Frank is stopping during his Honolulu visit; Beaurepaire and Duke Kahanamoku, former great swimmer of Hawaii and sheriff of Honolulu county. —Star-Bulletin photo.
