

200 to Show in Kailua Regatta

KAILUA, Oahu, Aug. 24—Four clubs with 200 representatives will participate in the Labor Day Regatta at Kailua Bay.

The water sports, sponsored by the Koolaupoko Lions club with Val Marciel and Pat Olds in charge, begin at 10 a. m. They include men's senior six, men's junior six, freshman six, kids' six and women's open in canoe paddling.

#

Surfboard races include senior and junior open, one mile; redwood plank, women's open; kids' open and tandem, 100 yards.

Special races between Lions' club crews and seniors (50 and over) are planned. Aquaplaning and a hukilau have also been planned.

#

Bicycle races beginning at 8:30 a. m. are junior, six miles, from NAS Kaneohe gate to Kailua park; intermediate, three miles; midgets, 1½ miles from Kailua Drug to park.

All races are slated to go through the business district and end at the park.

In charge of plans for the regatta are Mr. Marciel and Mr. Olds of the Koolaupoko Lions; John Kaupiko Sr., Joe Pang, Buster Shim and Ah Kong Pang of Hui Nalu; John Lind and Wally Froiseth of Waikiki Surf club and William Morris, William Barnhart and James Dowsett of the Outrigger Canoe club.