

PARTICIPATING IN THE KAILUA REGATTA Monday is this senior crew from the Outrigger Canoe club. The all day program, sponsored by the Koolauoko Lions club, starts at 8:30 in the morning with bicycle races. Water sports will follow during the day.

—Art MacCannell photo.

Kailua's Holiday Races Attract 200 Entries

KAILUA, Oahu, Sept. 3—The first annual Labor Day regatta to be held in windward Oahu gets under way at 10 a. m. Monday in Kailua bay.

Billed as one of the outstanding Labor Day events throughout the territory, the regatta will attract a total of 200 participants from four clubs. The event is being sponsored by the Koolauoko Lions club.

The races will begin off the beach behind Kalapawai store and hot at the pavilion.

At 9 a. m. Bandmaster Domenico Moro and his Royal Hawaiian band will entertain for a full hour.

The water carnival will include men's senior six, men's junior six, freshman six, kids' six and women's open in canoe paddling.

Surfboard races include the senior and junior open, one mile; redwood plank, women's open; kids' open and tandem, 100 yards.

Special races have been planned between Koolauoko and Kamehameha Lions clubs.

In the special oldtimers' race only crew members 50 years old and over will be allowed to participate.

Reigning as queen of the regatta is lovely Miss Marlene Mladinich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex B. Mladinich of 1011 Mokulua drive, Lanikai.

Miss Mladinich will be escorted by her two sisters, Lona and Adrienne, as ladies in attendance, while Kuulei Marciel and Elena Marie Campos will be the flower girls.

Bicycle races will start at 8:30 a. m., and horse races will be held at the Kailua race tracks beginning at 2:30 p. m.

Trophies and other prizes are being donated by the following stores and firms:

- Kailua Business Group, Kailua Hardware, Kailua Jewelry, Marine Supply Co., Kaneohe Ranch Co., Windward News.

Date service station, Kailua Plumbing, Oneawa market, Kailua tavern, Murakami Cabinet shop, Mina's Dress shop, Kalama Freight.

Kailua Bowling Center, Kailua Home Laundry, Windward Oahu Realty Co., Groh's Pharmacy, Coconut Grove Cleaners, Hughes' Kailua and Kaneohe Drug, Home Electric, Leon's at Kailua and Windward Electric Co.

Warriors to Lose 25; Montgomery Is Kingpin

By BILL GEE

This is the second of a series of the comparative strength of Inter-scholastic Football league teams. The preppers open their season Sep-