

Channel Races Planned on Ala Moana for Aloha Week

Ala Moana channel will hold the sports spotlight of Aloha Week on November 6 with a full program of aquatic events.

* * *

Beginning with an open surfboard half mile race at 1 p. m. there will be three hours of outrigger canoe, barge (shell) and surfboard events. There will be races for men, junior and wahine entrants.

* * *

John Lind, chairman of the water sports program for the Jaycee Oldtimers, sponsor of Aloha Week, has announced that entry blanks for the 14 events are available at the Aloha Week office, Waikiki Surf club and the Out-rigger Canoe club.

All events will be conducted so that the finish line will be opposite the Hawaiian village in Ala Moana park.

The complete list of events is:

Senior open half mile surfboard race; kids' (16 years and under) half mile outrigger canoe race; junior half mile barge race; wahines' half mile outrigger canoe race; men's 220 yard surfboard race; freshmen three quarter mile barge race; junior men's half mile outrigger canoe race; tandem surfboard 220 yard race; senior men's three quarter mile barge race; wahine open half mile surfboard race; senior men's half mile outrigger canoe race; wahine three quarter mile barge race; kids' (16 years and under) open half mile surfboard race; freshmen half mile outrigger canoe race.