

TO DISCUSS AUSTRALIAN TRIP—Harold Spry, Manly, New South Wales, Australia sportsman, who accompanied the Australian Surf and Life Saving club team here in 1939, is again a visitor in Honolulu on the last lap of a world tour. He was official photographer for the '39 group and took excellent movies of their events here which he will show to members of the Kamaaina Beachcombers' Hui at a dinner meeting at Waikiki Lau Yee Chai Monday evening starting at 6 p.m. Mr. Spry reports that Australia is extremely anxious to have a Honolulu team return the Aussies' visit. He is shown above at the Outrigger Canoe club with old friends. In the group are left to right, front row: Gay Harris, Mr. Spry and Duke P. Kahanamoku. Back row: John D. Kaupiko Sr., George D. (Dad) Center and Johnny Hollinger.—(Advertiser photo.)
