

GOLFING GREAT GOES SURFING—Jimmy Thomson, visiting golf luminary who is reputed as one of the longest hitters in the game, expressed a wish to go surfing with Duke Kahanamoku, famed Hawaiian aquatic star. No sooner said than done. The Duke and Dad Center, also prominent in aquatic circles, took Mr. and Mrs. Thomson for a number of thrilling rides at Waikiki yesterday. They are shown above just before taking off from the Outrigger Canoe club. Left to right, Steve Cronin, manager of E. O. Hall & Son, local Spalding agent, under whose auspices Thomson is conducting a series of clinics in the Islands; Mrs. Thomson, Walter Nagorski, president of the Hawaii PGA; Dad Center, the Duke and Jimmy Thomson. (Advertiser photo.)