

OUTRIGGER CANOE CLUB HONORS CRABBE, KRUGER—Two hometown "boys" (and that should be in quotes, they admit), Buster Crabbe and Harold (Stubby) Kruger, here with the Aqua Parade of 1950, saw some of the islands' top oldtime swimmers in a reunion Thursday in the Outrigger Canoe Club. Buster grew up in Hawaii, Stubby was born in Honolulu. Both earned their early swimming fame here. Attending the Outrigger party were the swimmers and swim-circle set pictured here: Seated, front row, left to right—Bill Newport, Emay MaKinney, P. A. MacKenzie, John Hollinger, Clarence Lane, Johnny Woodd, Sally Hale, A. E. Toots Minvielle, Jr., Sargeant Kahanamoku. Second row, seated in chairs, left to right—W. W. Harris, Jr., Mrs. Charles Cassidy, Sam Kahanamoku, Lew Henderson, Robert Fuller, Stubby Kruger, George "Dad" Center, Buster Crabbe with his 5-year-old son, Cuffy, Zen Genoves, Mrs. Fullard Leo, Mrs. R. T. Moses, Gay Harris. Standing, back row, left to right—Mason Newport, Fred Steere, Bill Hollinger, Charles Cassidy, Frank Kruger, Sam Fuller, Sam Poepoe, Bill Capp, T. Ellis, Leon Sterling, Sr., Mrs. Lillian Kruger, Wilfred Godbold, Jack MacKenzie, Allan Cunha, H. Taylor, Marian Jackson, Edric Cook, Lurline Harris, Mrs. Mildred Bauckham, Ed Bauckham, Gladys Hawkins, Virginia (Mrs. Buster) Crabbe, Robert Fischer, William Mullahey. (Advertiser photo.)