

A new six men on a team volleyball tournament at the Outrigger Canoe club brought many sleepy eyed members out early last Sunday morning.

The games were scheduled for 10; consequently many spouses suggested breakfasting at the club, putting them in a much better mood for cheering their husbands to victory.