

y Outrigger Club Canoe, Surfboard Races to be Held

Program Starts at 1 P.M. With OCC, Waikiki
Surf Club, Healani, Hui Nalu Entered;
Sam Fuller To Reign as King

The annual Kamehameha Day water pageant and Hookupu will be held by the Outrigger Canoe Club Sunday starting at 1 o'clock.

The "hookupu" is the bringing of gifts and with the arrival of canoes laden with fruits and other food, the festivities will get under way. Sam Fuller will be the king for the day.

Kaheaku Held To Draw By Charles Cooks

Johnny Kaheaku, Kalihi lightweight, and Charles Cooks of Schofield battled to a popular draw in the main event of an amateur boxing card witnessed by 2,500 fans at the Schofield Bowl last night.

In the best fight of the evening, Kenneth Doane of 49th State decisively Alfred Sandoval, Schofield middleweight.

Vernon Kilborn, Hawaii Youth

The first race will be the canoe race for boys under 17 and it will start at 1:30.

Other races scheduled are:

* * *

Freshmen canoe race for men; open girls surfboard race, open men surfboard race; canoe race for girls; junior open canoe race for men; novice canoe race for men; and men's open canoe race.

* * *

The races will be held on a course in front of the Outrigger Canoe Club.

Clubs entered are Outrigger Canoe Club, Hui Nalu, Waikiki Surf Club, and Healani Rowing Club.