

Outrigger Canoe Club to Present Pageant, Racing Program Monday

Canoe racing and a Hawaiian pageant will highlight the Outrigger Canoe club's celebration of Kamehameha Day on Monday afternoon at Waikiki beach.

The pageant starts at 1 p. m. with the canoe racing program getting under way at 1:30 near the club's premises.

VIOLET LEE COPS TROPHY TOURNEY

Violet Lee copped the Ala Wai Women's Golf club's Super Cold Sweet shop match vs. par trophy tournament Thursday at the Ala Wai with a 3-up card.

Full handicaps governed play. Myrtle Akiu was 1-up on par and Betty Fukuoka, even. Jeanette Dwight was 1-down. Stelle Jordan and Marie McKenzie were low

Canoes, representing all of the major Hawaiian Islands, will participate in the pageant.

TO LAND ON BEACH

They will land on the beach in front of OCC laden with gifts of food and livestock for their great monarch, Kamehameha I. a role which will be enacted by Sam Fuller.

On the receipt of these gifts, Kamehameha held athletic contests and distributed these to the winners as prizes. The giving of these gifts was called Ho' Opuku.

The races for Monday follow:

- 1—Canoe race, 16 and under.
- 2—Canoe race, 17 and under.
- 3—Freshman race for men.
- 4—Open girls' surfboard race.
- 5—Open men's surfboard race.
- 6—Canoe race for girls.
- 7—Junior open men's race.
- 8—Novice canoe race.
- 9—Men, open canoe race.