

SUMMER FUN

The Kids Are Home From School

By JEANNE McDONALD

College kids are being welcomed home from the mainland with plenty of Hawaiian hospitality.

From the end of May to the middle of July every plane and boat seems to bring more of the old crew and a party follows almost every arrival.

Sunday a beach party at the home of Tommy Guard in Waianae will welcome many of the arrivals on today's Lurline. The Guards are honoring Mrs. Guard's sister, Miss Virginia Diepenbrock, and her guest, Miss Carlean Fisher.

Also returning on the liner were Frannie Kay, Punahou '46; Robert A. Hinkley and Tom Kay, Punahou '48; Jean Fox and Meredith Crossley, '49.

Bob Hinkley has a college friend, Bob Page, with him for the summer.

"Old Kimono Night" at the Outrigger Canoe club June 26 will give the home-comers another Hawaiian welcome. There will be plenty of kaukau, moonlight dancing and to keep the boys happy no coats or ties.

It's strictly for the young set with no old folks allowed.

Junior Day was celebrated at the Outrigger on June 19 for the teenagers with competitive sports and a buffet supper given by the club in the evening.

THE JULY 4 RACES

Back on Waikiki beach and training for the July 4 canoe races are Pat Honl, Alice (Baby) Hite and Pam Anderson.

Pat has finished her second year at the University of Oregon and will spend her vacation surfing on her new surf-ski and meeting summer classes at the University of Hawaii.

Keeping up her tan and working for Gumps should keep "Baby" busy for the next two months.

Pam has just completed her first year at Finch Junior college in New York.

Her friends are hoping her job with the Hawaii Visitors bureau won't keep her too occupied as they're looking forward to some more of those famous Anderson jam sessions.
