

THE KIMONŌ dance at the Outrigger Tuesday night was a bang-up occasion, with most of Honolulu's younger set present.

The costumes included Chinese pajamas, muumuus, holomuus, China-muus (the newest in local garb, a cross between a Chinese gown and a muumuu) and a pair of knee-length kimonos work by Anne Ackerman and Cissy Beardmore.

THE TABLES were decorated with ti leaves, gardenias and ginger. Dinner was delicious, the Hawaiian music was perfect, and everyone had a wonderful time.
