

Training tables for all July 4 paddlers at the Outrigger Canoe club have been started. Each night the crews are entitled to dinner at reserved tables for reduced prices.

* * *

A dinner dance will be given at the club that evening celebrating the holiday canoe races. It should be a very gay affair, as it will be the first time the crews have broken training in many weeks.