

Koolaupoko Lions' Bicycle, Canoe Races Set Labor Day

Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence

KAILUA, Oahu, July 29 — The second annual canoe and bicycle races sponsored by the Koolaupoko Lions club will be held on Labor Day, September 4, at Kailua beach.

Four Honolulu clubs and one windward Oahu club will participate in the regatta. They are Outrigger Canoe club, Hui Nalu, Waikiki Surf club, Healani Rowing club and the Canoe club of Koolaupoko Lions.

Besides the regatta and bicycle races, surf board paddling, aquaplaning and surf board sail races will be held.

Crew members of the Canoe club of Koolaupoko Lions are using canoes lent by Harold K. Castle and Joseph Pang in preparation for the meet.

* * *

Patrick D. (Pat) Olds is general chairman of the regatta. He is being assisted by Val U. Marciel, chairman of publicity and entertainment committee; Richard F. McBean, chairman of program and transportation committee; Walter G. Pimental, chairman of finance committee, and Stennet B. Bell, chairman of trophy and donation committee.

* * *

Members of the youth committee in charge of the bicycle races are Henry Y. D. Young, chairman; Solomon O. Kalama, Arthur L. MacCannell, Earl F. Frandsen and Joseph J. Davis Jr.