

Duke's Birthday Honors

This is Duke Kahanamoku Day. The Outrigger Canoe Club is celebrating the occasion with a special program of sports events. The rest of the community is joining in with a heartfelt aloha to a beloved Hawaiian who at the age of sixty years remains unchanged and unspoiled by world renown as a swimming star, as a featured player in motion pictures, and the idol of admiring fans.

The polyracial residents of these Islands look upon Duke as symbolical of the Hawaiian people. His splendid physique, his gentle character and his unfailing courtesy typify the tradition that has given his race a unique and lasting place in history.
