

ALOHA TO DUKE—Oldtimers in Hawaii's aquatic sports gathered at the Outrigger Canoe club yesterday to honor Duke Kahanamoku as the beach club held a program of water events in observance of "Duke Kahanamoku Day." The famed Hawaiian aquatic star celebrated his 60th birthday last Thursday. Judge Harry Steiner, one of the scores who congratulated Duke yesterday, said: "You don't look any older than 45." With Duke (holding surfboard) in photo above are the following: standing, left to right, Ernest Cook, G. D. Crozier, F. L. Turner, Ted Mullahey, Bill Hollinger, Sam Fuller, Judge Steiner, Dad Center, Tuff Bill, Bob Fischer, Sally Hale, John Hollinger and Wilford D. Godbold. Kneeling, Joe Gillis, Joe Stickney, Lew Henderson and John D. Kaupiko. (Advertiser photo by K. Shimogaki.)