

CLUB GETS DUKE'S PORTRAIT—A new portrait of Duke P. Kahanamoku, painted in oils on black velvet, was presented to the Outrigger Canoe club Saturday during "Duke Kahanamoku Day" festivities to observe the former swimming champion's 60th birthday. Pictured with the portrait, left to right, are Robert Fischer, who made the presentation on behalf of Artist Bill Erwin, who painted it; Duke, and Wilford D. Godbold, president of the club. (Advertiser photo.)

Day-Long Program

Beach Events Honor 'Duke' on Birthday

Members and friends of the Outrigger Canoe club paid honor to its best known member, Duke P. Kahanamoku, Saturday in a day-long program marking his 60th birthday. A sports program which began at 8 a.m. was to continue throughout the day. The regular Hawaii Calls radio program was scheduled from the club during the afternoon, and a steak fry and program of dancing and entertainment were planned to continue to 1 a.m.

HIGHLIGHT of the morning program was presentation of a new portrait of "the Duke" to the club by Bill Erwin, Honolulu artist who painted it on black velvet.

Robert Fischer made the presentation to Wilford D. Godbold, the Outrigger president, in the absence of Erwin.

Exhibited at the last jury show of the Association of Honolulu Artists, the portrait was acclaimed as "most popular painting" on display.

ERWIN, AN island resident for 20 years, recalled that it was Kahanamoku who taught him to swim and surf in 1930. He said it was "only natural" that he should offer his painting of Kahanamoku "as a testimonial to the high esteem in which he is held."

Duke himself competed in several events during the afternoon, including a special swimming race with "Dad" Center and other oldtimers among Hawaii's aquatic greats.

ATTENDANCE of 450 was indicated for the 7 p.m. steak fry and the dancing and entertainment at 9. During it, Kahanamoku was to be presented with a silver tray from the club membership.

U. S. Air Force Loses 58 Planes

TOKYO, Aug. 26 (UP) The U. S. air force lost 58 planes and suffered 94 casualties in the first 60 days of the Korean war, Lt. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer said today.

The casualties included 26 dead, 23 wounded and 45 missing, he said, in an interim report.

He said the air war in Korea has "severely crippled the enemy," but "not without some cost to us."

Time 'On In Korea:

"Time is on our side now" Shepherd Jr., commanding general in the Pacific told reporters at Harbor headquarters. "The next period. In a month, we should be

