

Duke's Slam and Canoe Teams Win

The day long program Saturday in honor of Duke Kahanamoku sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe club went over with a bang.

Duke celebrated his 60th birthday anniversary Thursday, but festivities were held Saturday in which many Honolulu and mainland admirers of Duke participated.

#

Hawaii's greatest swimmer took part in a volleyball game and a canoe race and came out on the winning end in both instances.

#

On his volleyball team were Sam Fuller, Dad Center, Bob Fischer, Willie Whittle and Wilford Godbold.

In the men's 100 yard freestyle swim, Norman Burger finished first in the fast time of 53 seconds.

#

"Bobbie" Nickerson swam the same distance in 1:06 to take first in the girls event with Louise Harris in second place.

#

Tom Schroeder paddled 100 yards on his surfboard in 29.5 seconds to win while Neal Ifversen took second. In the girls' race Pat Honl took 32.5 seconds to cover the 100 yards to win with Pat Barker a close second.