

Lions Labor Day Begins With a Kailua Regatta

The Koolaupoko Lions club will stage its second annual Labor Day regatta Monday, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

This year's celebration will be an all-day sports extravaganza, interspersed with two hours of Hawaiian entertainment for both residents and visitors at Kailua park beach.

There will be no admission charge.

The program for the day:

9:30 to 10 a.m.—The Youth committee annual bicycle races.

10 to 11 a.m.—Hukilau and Hawaiian entertainment.

11 to 11:30 a.m.—Water pageant.

11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.—Surfboard races.

12:30 to 1:30 p.m. — Hawaiian entertainment.

1:30 to 4 p.m.—Canoe races.

This year's celebration will honor Duke P. Kahanamoku, who will reign as grand marshal.
