

MEN AND BOATS are being readied for the water pageant of Aloha Week 1950, entitled "The Period of Migration," which will be presented tonight in Ala Moana channel. New to the Aloha Week calendar, the pageant will depict the manner and order in which the various races came to Hawaii. Starting time is 8 p. m. Snapped here at a pre-pageant conference at the Outrigger club—which is supplying some of the canoes and men for the event—are, left to right, Bob Fischer, Duke Kahanamoku and Bill Morris. The Duke will head the peddlers in the canoe bearing the king of Aloha Week, as he did in the opening ceremonies last Sunday. Aloha Week continues through next Sunday.—Aloha Week photo.
