

1,200 See Water Sports at Beach

About 1,200 amused spectators Sunday afternoon braved "liquid sunshine" to watch the Aloha Week water sports frolic in front of the Moana hotel.

Because the sundry body surfing, canoe surfing and board surfing races were run off on a novelty basis, no official results were recorded.

In the malihini races for outriggers, however, Moana hotel won first and second places, with Halekulani hotel capturing third and fourth.

* * *

No awards were given. The water sports program was sponsored by clubs of the Hawaiian Outrigger Canoe and Surfboard association. Sam Fuller was chairman.