

Color, Pageantry To Mark Hotel Ground Breaking

Color and pageantry will mark the public ground breaking ceremony for Matson's new SurfRider hotel Saturday.

At 1:45 p. m. an exhibition of surfing and canoeing is planned. The three Waikiki swimming clubs—the Outrigger Canoe club, the Waikiki Surf club and Hui Halu—will all be represented.

PROGRAM AT 2:30

At 2:30 p. m., on the site of the new 150 room building, next door to the Moana hotel, a program of music, dancing and pageantry will be presented.

Iolani Luahine, the music of Merl Kekuku, and Ken Gerrard's dancing troupe will provide entertainment immediately preceding the ground breaking.

# #

Warner-Pathe News will cover the event.

The Rev. Henry P. Judd will give the invocation and David Bray will recite an ancient chant.

Randolph Sevier, Matson president, will speak at the ceremony.

Among the invited guests are Governor Stainback, Delegate Farrington, Mayor Wilson, members of the board of supervisors and others. There will be a large delegation of surfriders, led by Duke Kahanamoku.