

People and Parties

Cupid seemed to be busy at Waikiki Saturday.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Thad Ekstrand basked in the sun at the Outrigger Canoe Club.

"Spud" Pearce and his wife Ann Graef were there; they joined Dick Fairservice, Kay Banning and the William Bleekers in drinking a toast to George Brenner and Wanda Grant who were being married that day at Kona.

Other recent weds, the William Haxtons, also were there.

Sunning together also were lovely Alicia Lang and Cmdr. Bruce Ing.

AT THE SURFRIDER HOTEL penthouse lanai, a wedding luncheon was given by Mr. and Mrs. Adrian G. Banker for their daughter, Patricia, who was married at noon to John M. Duane Jr. of Ft. Shafter.

Twenty eight guests wished them happiness and saw them off for a Kauai honeymoon.

DR. DORIAN PASKOWITZ passed by all the young lovelies for a whirl on his surfboard.

Those first ladies of the surfboard, Pam Anderson and Mrs. Nesta Obermer, also yielded to the call of the sea and board.

Since his injured elbow has healed, Robert Bush resumed his game of fast volleyball at the club.

Mrs. Bush, with Mrs. Thomas Arnett and Miss Susan Buckner, added one more cafe au lait layer to healthy sun tans, while Mrs. Thomas O'Brien sighed at her ivory whiteness and tilted her face toward the sun for her first tanning of the season.

THERE WERE those who attempted to soak up enough sun to last through future months away from the islands: Larry Eaton, going to the Orient on business; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Flanders leaving for the mainland next week; Leilani Schuman, daughter of the Gustav W. Schumans, returning to Wellesley this week.

All the beachboys were busy posing for Dan Wallace for a full-length movie of marine life, spear-fishing, surf-boarding, under-water action in island waters.

TV and theater audiences will thrill over the finished picture called "a Beach-boy's Day."

THERE WAS happy chaos at the Royal Hawaiian in the morning when the Lurline guests arrived.

Col. and Mrs. John F. Stanwell-Fletcher lunched in the Surf bar. They had just returned from Tibet, Afghanistan, Pakistan and India where Col. Stanwell-Fletcher, a naturalist, gathered specimens and movies of native life.

Mrs. Stanwell-Fletcher unwittingly created a bedlam with her naturally red hair in a Moslem country where only those who have made the pilgrimage to sacred Mecca are allowed to use red hair dye.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke Kahanamoku entertained guests from New York, Mr. and Mrs. George Gross and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bunderoff, at dinner Saturday evening at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

Honolulu Girls Study At Southwestern Baptist

By ANN FOX

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., Feb. 6—Two girls from Honolulu are alumnae of Blue Mountain College and now enrolled in Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Ft. Worth, Tex.

They are Betty Chong of Wahiawa, Oahu, and Ah How Ching of Honolulu.

They are doing well at Southwestern Baptist and are popular with their schoolmates.

Irene Rose Caretti Is Bride of Private

Miss Irene Rose Caretti became the bride of Private First Class Arthur L. Rogers at a nuptial mass at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Peace on January 12. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. F. Branco Jr. Her husband is the son of Mrs. L. Rogers.

A reception was held at 2348 Booth Rd., the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Costa.