

'Y' Volleyball Series Tonight

The first annual Central "Y" Open volleyball tourney will get underway tonight at 6 o'clock. The tourney, sanctioned by the U. S. Volleyball Association, will be played off in one night and will use the new time limit or 15 point basis, whichever ever comes first.

The tourney is expected to draw a capacity audience since top teams playing in the AAP League compose the entries along with Central YMCA's team.

The first match at 6 p.m. pits Central "Y" against Avenue Liquors of Waikiki. McKinley Auto Paint will vie for honors at 7 p.m. against Outrigger Canoe Club.
