

Back to School Fashion Show At Outrigger Club

The younger set were on the sidelines to witness a Back to School fashion show at the Outrigger Canoe club yesterday afternoon with club members as models for the Carol and Mary sponsored parade.

* * *

CAMPUS WEAR, informal daytime frocks and formal gowns were paraded by the models who will be leaving soon for colleges of their choice.

Tea was served members, guests and their families during the style show and commentator was Carolyn Carney.

* * *

MODELS included, Gail Dillingham, Annie Wright seminary, Tacoma, Wash.; Joa. Scott, Edgewood Park, Briarcliffe Manor, N. Y.; Betty Stevens, Sullins Junior college, Bristol, Va.; Diane Johnston, Dominican convent, San Rafael, Calif.; Ann Cleveland, Colorado Women's college, Denver; Janet Grout, University of

Dr. C. M. McCandless To Duty at Tripler

Newly arrived at Tripler Army hospital as chief of the surgical pathology section is Cmdr. Carl M. McCandless, (MC), USN.

A graduate of the Harvard Medical School, Dr. McCandless came to Hawaii from the naval hospital, San Diego, where he was assistant laboratory officer.

During the war Cmdr. McCandless was assigned to a corps evacuation hospital with the marines in the Pacific, and with this unit saw duty in Okinawa, Japan and other parts of the Pacific from November, 1944, to May, 1946.

Dr. McCandless California; Carolyn Pillsbury, Punahou school; Anne Martin, University of Hawaii, and Gay Singlehurst, Sarah Lawrence college, Bronxville, N. Y.