

Volleyball Play Tonight

Honolulu will be treated to the first Open Territorial Volleyball Tournament in many years tonight at Central YMCA. Six teams will vie for honors starting at 7 p.m. following a hula show and music by Kaleikani Trio at 6:30.

Favored teams include Twentieth Century Cabinet, coached by Sonny Lee and Ernest Ah Yat, and Hawaii National Guard, mentored by Adolph Lino. Outrigger Canoe Club and Nuuanu YMCA drew byes for the first week's competition.

Tonight's schedule pits Kalia AC against the National Guard sextet at 7 p.m., followed by Central YMCA meeting Twentieth Century Cabinet at 8:15. Refreshments have been donated for players at time outs. Trophies will be presented by Aloha Motors and Williams Equipment Co.

The public is urged to attend and admission will be free to the Hula Show and other entertainment scheduled.
