

12 Canoe Races Scheduled Monday at Kailua Beach

Twelve races will comprise the program of the fourth annual Labor Day Canoe Regatta slated off Kailua beach next Monday.

The program is sponsored by the Koolaupoko Lions Club.

Regatta Chairman Scotty McBean has extended an invitation to the public to watch the races featuring Oahu's top canoe clubs.

Waikiki Surf Club, team winner of the three previous Labor Day Regattas, is again the strong favorite.

Other entries are from the Outrigger Canoe Club, Hui Nalu and the Koolaupoko Lions Club.

John Lind, president of the Hawaiian Canoe Racing and Paddling Association, will act as marshall for the day.

Monday's races mark the end of canoe racing for 1952.

Hudson to Join Chisox

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP) — Hal Hudson, a 25 year old lefthander, today was obtained by the Chicago White Sox from the St. Louis Browns on waivers.
