Herbert M. Taylor Named President of Outrigger Canoe

Herbert M. Taylor is new president of the Outrigger Canoe Club, succeeding Wilford D. Godbold, who led the organization for seven years.

Mr. Taylor and other new officers were elected last night by directors.

Others named were Samuel F. Fuller, vice president; Vincent Danford, treasurer, and Martin Anderson, secretary.

The directorate gave Judge Godbold a strong vote of thanks for the contributions to improvement of the organization he has made during his long term as president.

The directors were elected at a February meeting. New members serving with the holdover directors are H. Bryan Renwick, Martin Anderson and William H. Ewing.
