Canoe Racing Sked For Year Announced

First of the series of canoe races for the year will take place in Honolulu Harbor on Maritime Day, May 24.

Highlight of the season will be the annual Julian Yates Hawaiian Island championships slated in Kailua Bay, Kona, Hawaii, on July 25.

Hawaiian Outrigger Canoe Racing Association is sponsoring the program.

PROGRAM

Dates and sites for the year's program:

May 24, Honolulu Harbor; June 11, Keehi Lagoon; June 23, Kailua, Oahu; July 4, MacFarlane Memorial Races at Waikiki; July 11, Keehi Lagoon; July 25, Julian Yates Hawaiian Island championships at Kona.

Competing clubs: Hui Nalu, Healani, Koolaupoko, Outrigger Canoe Club, Waikiki Surf Club, all of Oahu; Kai Opua and Honaunau Club from Kona, Hawaii.

Representatives of various clubs in the association meet every Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., at the board room of the Board of Public Parks and Recreation, City Hall Annex. Guests are welcome at these meetings.