Six Clubs Entered In Sunday's Races

Eleven Events Slated For Annual Competition In Honolulu Harbor To Celebrate Maritime Day

Six clubs will participate in eleven events Sunday in the annual Maritime Day Canoe paddling regatta in the Honolulu Harbor, starting at 11 a.m.

They are Koolaupoko, Outrigger Canoe Club, Waikiki Surf Club, Hui Nalu, Hui Kalia and Healani. In training the past month, all the crews are in fine condition and ready for grueling races.

Dancer Favored For Preakness

BALTIMORE, Md., May 21—(UP)—Saturday's Preakness crystallized into a field of seven today as entries for the second of the triple crown classics closed 48 hours before the race with Native Dancer and Dark Star heading the list.

There were no surprises as Royal Bay Gem, Correspondent, Tahitian King, Jamie K and Ram O'War also were entered for the mile and three-sixteenths stake.

Even though he lost to Dark Star in the Kentucky Derby three weeks ago, the Dancer was quoted at 4 to 5 to avenge that defeat, the only time Alfred G. Vanderbilt's steel-gray colt has been beaten. His string of 11 straight victories was shattered but his reputation suffered little as most observers claimed "the best horse lost."

SubPac Plays Flyer Nine

The Armed Forces League's one-two teams, SubPac and Ft. Shafter, face stern tests in tonight's service loop action as the Raiders invade Hickam Field for a tilt with the Flyers, and the Commandos host Coast Guard.

In the only other game tonight, Naval Base will play the cellar dwelling Kaneohe Marines at naval Base. All games tonight get underway at 8 p.m.
