Year's Best Surf Draws Enthusiasts To Waikiki Beach

The "best surf of the year" created a heavy traffic among surf board enthusiasts at Waikiki Beach today, according to Sally Hale of the Outrigger Canoe Club this morning.

"It's really terrific," Hale reported over the telephone. "They're getting rides of 300 and 400 yards and the surf is breaking as far as a mile out."

"Everybody had better grab a board and get to the beach today—you don't want to miss this treat in surfing," Hale commented.
