Canoe Races Set Tomorrow

Adding to the numerous Kamehameha Day festivities tomorrow will be a heated session of canoe racing in Hónolulu harbor just off Pier 2.

Competing in the annual Kamehameha Day races will be Hui Nalu, Healani, Outrigger Canoe Club, Waikiki Surf Club, Hui Kalia and Koolaupoko. The first race will get under way at 11 a.m.

Waikiki Surf again will rank as the team to beat. The Surfers, whose senior man six has been dominating the "blue ribbon" events during recent years, won the most recent canoe racing program, the Maritime Day Regatta.

MAY BE SURPRISES

However, paddlers from all clubs have been hitting their workouts with vim and vigor and there could be several surprises.

Tomorrow night at 7:30, the Kamehameha Day dance will be held by the Hawaiian Canoe Racing and Surfing Association at 7:30 in the Ala Wai Officers Club.
