DE REGATTA

Outrigger Second In Kam Day Races

Waikiki Surf Paddlers Capture Senior Six For Men Over Three Miles; Also Win Women's Six-Paddle Mile Races

Waikiki Surf Club's hardy paddlers, coached by Wally Froiseth, once again dominated the big events to win their second straight canoe paddling regatta of the year by taking team honors in the Kamehameha Day races held before 5,000 spectators in Honolulu Harbor yesterday.

The WSC paddlers captured the blue ribbon men's senior six three-mile grind, the senior six women's one mile feature, the men's senior four, the women's junior six and the boys' 17 and under events. They also got a third place in the men's junior four to score 26 points to 21 for Outrigger Canoe Club.

* * *

The OCC won two races, the freshmen six and the men's junior four, and finished second in the men's senior four and senior six, the women's senior six. They also got third places in the men's junior six and boys 17 and under races.

Hui Nalu nosed out Hui Kalia for third, 12 to 11, while Koolaupoko Lions and Healani each scored a point. Hui Nalu won the men's junior six.

* * *

There were three other events in which points were not scored. Healani copped the men's novice-six over half mile, Waikiki Surf the women's novice-six over half mile and Outrigger the boys' six for paddlers under 13 years of age over 440 yards. WSC was first in the boys 13 event but was disqualified.

Paddling in the same canoe, the "Malia," that was used in the Molokai to Honolulu race last year, the WSC crew triumphed over Outrigger in the blue ribbon race. The crew of George Downing, Tuses Perkins, Blaine Makaena, Hartwell Freitas, Dutchy Kino and Blue Makua paddled to a 29:52.4 victory. Downing, Perkins and Kino were members of the Molokai to Honolulu crossing last year.

Outrigger was second in 30:01.1, followed by Hui Nalu. There were only three canoes in this race.

* * *

In the senior-six for women, WSC's crew of Jake Malama, Lileta Cook, Truda Wong, Violet Makua, Jayne Clark and Keanue Kekai won by almost 50 yards over Outrigger in 12:10.4.

* * *

Waikiki Surf, with David Kapahalehua, Art Hollinger, James Kekai and Ed Whaley in the canoe, took the senior-four mile race in 10:06.5, followed by Outrigger and Hui Kalia.

Hui Nalu scored its only victory by taking the senior six for men over two miles in 21:33, with Hui Kalia second in 21:42.2 and Outrigger third.

The Hui Nalu paddlers, Clinton Keltg, George Kamaga, George Borges, Leslie Amoy, Richard Kaeo and Ed Kamaana, beat out a Hui Kalia crew which included three Roosevelt gridders, Max Kuhns, Wally Gonsalves and John Simerson. Alex Lambert, Bronson Cherry and John McPherson were the other paddlers.

* * *

The Roosevelt trio and McPherson also paddled in the junior four but again Kalia finished second, this time to a Outrigger foursome of A. Kaana, D. Fow-

(Continued on Page 16)

6 Kam Stars Will Go To Mainland

Six of Kamehameha school's outstanding athletes will attend mainland colleges next fall but three others have announced they will enroll at the University of Hawaii.

Colin Chock, who won letters in football, baseball and basketball, has decided on the UH, as have basketball star Mel Hewitt and Ronald Huddy, a football lineman.

Eldredge Sequeira, Dan Fuller, Wilfred Kealoha and Chauncey Pa, all backfieldmen of the championship Kamehameha team last fall, will go away to mainland schools.

* * *

"Windy" Sequeira has chosen Washington State where he will major in agriculture and husbandry. Sequeira was outstanding not only in football but track and basketball as well. A leg injury sidelined him during the latter part of the football and track seasons in his senior year.

* * *

Fuller, who is interested in police administration, has decided to go to Purdue University where he will have John Simerson of Roosevelt as a freshman teammate. Johnny Kerr and Edwin Neves are two other islanders who will be at Purdue. Kerr will be a senior and Neves a sophomore.

Kealoha, a scatback on the football team, has picked Oregon State and will also major in agriculture and animal husbandry.

Pa, who did not finish at Kam school, will go to Pasadena Junior College. He was quarterback on the Kam team last fall and also starred in track as a half-miler.

Another Kam football player, Dudley Makahanaloa, a guard, will go to the University of Oregon. He plans to major in economics.

* * *

Bill Wise, Jr., will continue his schooling at Ohio State University. Son of veteran football Coach Bill Wise, young Wise is an outstanding freestyle sprint swimming prospect and should be right at home at Ohio State where islanders Ford Konno, Yoshio Oyakawa and Dick Cleveland will be on hand to help him.

Managoff, El Hombre Meet Sunday