Braves Lose

Michaels, like Bobby Thomson, collected his 1,000th major league hit, driving in another run with it as the Athletics topped the White Sox 6-5.

Philadelphia and Chicago in the National were not scheduled.

In an American League night game at St. Louis, the Red Sox handed the Browns their 10th straight defeat, 7 to 0, behind the four-hit pitching of Willard Nixon. The Boston righthander had a perfect game going for 5 2/3 innings until losing Pitcher Virgil Trucks whacked a double. The win was the fourth straight for the Sox, and their eighth in the last 10 games, all on the road.
