Third Canoe Regatta Set For Sunday

The third canoe paddling regatta of the year will be held Sunday at 11 on the waters off Kailua Park. The Hawaiian Canoe Racing and Surfing Association is sponsoring the races.

In the first two regattas held so far, the Maritime Day and the Kamehameha Day races in the harbor, the Waikiki Surf Club emerged victorious with the Outrigger Canoe Club a close second.

* * *

All the clubs on Oahu will vie for honors in Sunday's events. They are also looking forward to participating in the annual Julian Yates Hawaiian Canoe Paddling championships at Kona on July 25.

* * *

In the 1952 championships, the Oahu clubs dominated the regatta against the bid of the Kona crews. Kona has long been famed for its sturdy racing canoes and crews.

The same events as in the previous two regattas will be held this Sunday at Kailua. They include races for men and women in the various divisions and for boys.