Paddlers In Action

Canoe Races Slated Today at Kailua

The third of a series of canoe paddling regatta, sponsored by the Hawaiian Canoe Racing and Surfing Association, will be held this morning on the waters off Kailua park, starting at 11 a.m.

The association has scheduled another regatta for July fourth. This will be the final race before the annual Julian Yates Territorial championship on July 25 in Kona.

* * *

Waikiki Surf Club has so far won the Maritime Day and Kamehameha Day events, both of which were held in the calm waters of Honolulu harbor. However, today the WSC crews will face tough competition as the other clubs are out to avenge their previous defeats and are primed.

* * *

The events scheduled for today are:

Boys 13 and under; boys 17 and under; freshmen six; junior six; junior four; senior six; novice; novice women; junior women six, and senior women six.