Kaneohe Yacht Club Retains Gillette Trophy

After Waikiki Yacht Club gained a deadlock by winning the second race of the Cy Gillette challenge trophy series, Kaneohe Yacht Club came back strong in the third and final race yesterday afternoon to retain the cup.

The KYC Lightnings won the first race of the series last Sunday. WYC took the second race yesterday morning with 39 points to 33¼ for Kaneohe. But the windward Oahu skippers won in the afternoon, 46¼ to 17, to make it two out of three.

Strong, gusty winds gave the skippers a chance to display their skill.

The order of finish for the second and third races follow:

Morning—First, Cy Gillette (K), 2nd, Harry Uhler (W); 3rd, Bill Ballinger (K); 4th, Frank Rothwell (W); 5th, Bob Miller (W); 6th, Larry Haus (W); 7th, Bill Hole (K); 8th, Phil Fisk (K); 9th, Jay Vincent (W). Bob Edmondson (K), disqualified.

Afternoon—Won by Bob Edmondson (K); 2nd, Bill Hole (K); 3rd, Cy Gillette (K); 4th, Harry Uhler (W); 5th, Milltr (W); 6th, Wally Hawkins (K); 7th, Fisk (K). Frank Rothwell (W), disqualified.

Spencer Wins Prexy Trophy

Gilbert Spencer defeated Feril Angco, one up, in the 36-hole finals of the Moanalua Golf club President's Trophy tournament yesterday.

In the Directors Flight, Clyde Sniffen won over Frank Machado, 7 and 6. Harry Ching downed Paul Garcia, 8 and 7, in the Club Flight, while Bruce Hopkins beat Fash Yamada, 2 up, in the consolation bracket.

All finals were over 36 holes.
