Waikiki Surf Club Sweeps Canoe Races

The fond hopes Outrigger Canoe Club paddlers had held of recapturing local canoe racing supremacy were completely dashed at Kailua yesterday.

Wally Froiseth's strongly conditioned Waikiki Surf Club crews virtually dominated every event of an 11 event program to score the season's most one sided canoe regatta triumph.

It was about this time last year that Outrigger paddlers were practically peerless and were lacking a close rival.

FOUND LACKING

Yesterday, however, it was they who were lacking as the Surfers piled up 36 points. Outrigger paddlers could only collect 13 points to barely edge third placc Hui Kalia, who had 11, for runner-up honors. Hui Nalu was fourth.

The Koolaupoko crew, racing over home waters, found even that not to its advantage, getting only two points.

This regatta was one of the final tune-ups for the big territorial championships at Kona later this summer.

The next big one locally will be the Walter Macfarland regatta next week off Waikiki.

SURFERS FAVORED

At this point one can safely say the Surfers will take that classic too unless the Outrigger crews can whip into top flight shape in the next five days.

The Surfers won eight of the 11 races. Outrigger captured two and Hui Kalia nabbed one.
