Stone Wins Air Force Golf Title

Robert Stone won the Hawaiian Division Air Force golf championship yesterday at the Kalakaua course finishing 10 strokes ahead of Lt. Isamu Murata. He will head a six-man Air Force team in the Inter-Service golf tournament.

Stone finished with a 70 in the afternoon after carding a 68 in the morning round for a 72-hole score of 285. Tied for first with Murata going into the final two rounds, Stone set too hot a pace for the others in yesterday's play. Lt. Murata carded 295.

Jimmy Yates finished third with 299, turning in rounds of 75 and 73. Others making up the six-man team which will represent the Air Force of the Pacific in the Pacific Conference tourney next week were LaVerne Gronquist, John Abernathy, and Bob McDaniels.

Allen Lau won an alternate
