Henry Davis Drops Nod To Eddie Chavez

SAN JOSE, Calif., July 4 (UP)—Young Eddie Chavez, the nation's fifth ranking lightweight contender, danced and punched his way to a unanimous 10-round decision over Henry Davis of Los Angeles and Honolulu today.

The clever Chavez, scoring with lefts and rights to Davis' head at will, was out in front all the way in the fight that was televised on a national hookup.

There wasn't a single knockdown during the ten rounds, but it was a bruising battle in which both fighters landed freely. The hardest blows were exchanged in the seventh round when Davis connected with a solid right smash to Chavez' chin. Chavez never blinked an eye and immediately returned a right cross that staggered Davis.

Under the California scoring system there are 11 points in each round. Referee Fredy Apostoli, the former national middleweight champion, gave the decision to Chavez 56-54; Judge Vern Bybee had it 58½-51½, and Judge Jack Silver had it 56½-53½.

The victory gave Chavez, who weighed 138 to 137 for Davis, a record of 47 victories in 55 fights, with five losses and three draws. The house grossed a disappointing $7,490 with 2,400 fans in Civic Auditorium.

The most lopsided round of the battle was the ninth when Chavez, apparently thinking it was the final round, gave his foe a terrific pasting. As the bell ended the round Chavez walked to Davis' corner to pat him on the back and had to be dragged away by his handler.
