Waikiki Surf Club First in Canoe Regatta

The Waikiki Surf Club still holds undisputed supremacy in the canoe paddling sport on Oahu today.

Coach Wally Froiseth's paddlers turned up for the territorial regatta at Kailua, Kona, later this summer by easily winning the annual Walter Macfarlane regatta Saturday.

The Surfers copped almost every major event to pile up 29 points. Outrigger Canoe Club paddlers, previous canoe kingpins locally, trailed in second place with 19.

4th W.S.C. VICTORY

The regatta triumph, scored in the waters off Waikiki beach, ran the Surf club's victory string this year to four.

Other clubs finished in this order: Hui Nalu third with 13 points, Hui Kalia and Koolaupoko tied for fourth with five points each.

Waikiki Surf paddlers won key victories in the men's senior six race over a three mile route, the women's senior six chase and the men and women's junior four races.

Meanwhile, Kona crews prepared for the territorial classic with a tune-up at Kona also last Saturday.

The Kai O Pua club edged Hoonaunau 43 to 40 in a regatta which saw both clubs win five races.
