OCC Ret

Waikiki Surf Wins Men's Senior Race

Outrigger Garners 32 Points to Outscore WSC Paddlers

Outrigger Canoe Club, runner-up to Waikiki Surf Club in four earlier regattas, came through with the chips on the line to retain the Oahu canoe paddling championship yesterday in Honolulu harbor.

Under sunny skies and before several thousand spectators, the Outrigger paddlers for the first time this year out scored Waikiki Surf, 32 points to 27, Healani finished third with seven ponits, followed by Hui Nalu with four and Hui Kalia with two.

However, while OCC captured the team championship for the second straight year, Waikiki Surf remained unbeaten in the senior-six three-mile blue ribbon race as a crew of George Downing, Moses Perkins, Dutchy Kino, Hartwell Freitas, Blackie Makaena and Wally Froiseth pulled to a 26:43 victory, winning by almost 100 yards over OCC. Hui Nalu was third and Hui Kalia fourth.

* * *

In events that counted for points, Outrigger won the boys 17 and under, junior-six men, freshman-six, and junior-four men. Waikiki Surf copped the women's senior and junior events and the men's senior four in addition to the men's senior six. However, while Outrigger finished second to Waikiki Surf in the events it didn't win, the WSC paddlers got only a third in the boys' 17 events and finished out of the money in the freshman-six.

* * *

Waikiki Surf won the women's senior-six over a mile in 10:55.7 and in a close finish Outrigger beat out Healani for second place.

The closest race of the regatta came in the boys' 17 event which Outrigger won in 9:32, with Healani finishing just one second behind the OCC canoe.

The clubs will now begin preparation for the Julian Yates Territorial championships to be

(Continued on Page 17)